13. NIE-52: Probable Future Orientation of Japan

Priority: Routine

Status: Initiated by O/NE and authorized by the DCI on 11 October. Contributions have been received and a draft is being prepared in O/NE. Target date for draft to Board is 1 February.

14. NIE-56: Likelihood of Loss of Important Economic Resources in Selected Foreign Areas

Priority: Routine

Status: A series of estimates to cover this subject authorized by the IAC on 11 October at the request of G-2. Contributions to Part I (Economic) are being handled through the EIC. A working group of the EIC has been appointed and a tentative deadline for contributions on the first two areas set for 30 January. IAC representatives agreed that Part II (Factors Affecting Availability) and Part III (Conclusions) would not be taken up until contributions to Part I had been received.

15. NIE-57: Probable Political Developments in the West German Situation during 1952

Priority: High

Status: Initiated by O/NE and approved by the DCI on 26 October. A Board draft was circulated to the IAC representatives on 15 January. A meeting has been scheduled for 22 January to discuss this draft.

16. NIE-58: Relations between the Chinese Communist Regime and the USSR: Their Present Character and Probable Future Courses

Priority: Routine

Status: Approved by the IAC (see Item 1, IAC-D-1) and scheduled by O/NE in early November. Defense agency contributions have been received. State and O/RR contribution are now due on 31 January.

27. National Intelligence Estimates Support for NATO
(IAC-D-39, D-39/1, IAC-M-53)

The G-2 proposal to release to SHAPE NIE-33 "Soviet Control of the European Satellites and Their Economic and Military Contribution to Soviet Power through Mid-1953" has raised the general question of making NIE's available to the NATO countries. The IAC on 14 December decided to postpone action pending clarification of the authority to disseminate national intelligence to foreign governments.

28. Revision of NSCID-1 (IAC-D-40)

Proposed wording has been discussed among the agencies and is ready for consideration at the next meeting of the IAC.
